REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

1. The Claims Comply with 35 U.S.C. §112, par. 2

The Examiner rejected claims 6, 18, and 30 as indefinite (35 U.S.C. §112, par. 2) for having an element, the "access time rating", that lacks antecedent basis. Applicants amended these claims to remove this requirement, thereby correcting the antecedent basis error.

The Examiner rejected independent claim 1 as indefinite for including a phrase that is not clearly understood. Applicants amended claim 1, and also independent claims 13 and 25, to remove the unclear phrase.

Applicants request the Examiner to enter these amendments because they do not alter the claims in a manner that would necessitate further searching and to expedite prosecution.

2. Claims 1, 3-7, 12-14, 16-19, 24-26, 28-31, and 36 are Patentable Over the Cited Art

The Examiner rejected claims 1, 3, 7, 12013, 15, 19, 24-25, 27, 31, and 36 as obvious (35 U.S.C. §103(a)) over Merriam (U.S. Patent Publication 2003/0195960) and Barrick (U.S. Patent No. 6,625,647). Applicants traverse.

Under 35 U.S.C. §103(c), subject matter which qualifies as prior art under 35 U.S.C. §102(f), which includes Merriam, shall not preclude patentability where the subject matter, i.e., Merriam, and the claimed invention were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

Applicants submit that at the time the present invention was made, the claimed invention and Merriam were owned or subject to an obligation of assignment to International Business Machines Corp. (IBM). Thus, under 35 U.S.C. §103(c), Merriam cannot be used in an obviousness rejection of the claims of the present application.

The Manual of Patent Examination and Procedure (MPEP) makes this rule clear:

Effective November 29, 1999, subject matter which was prior art under former 35 U.S.C. 103 via 35 U.S.C. 102(e) is now disqualified as prior art against the claimed invention if that subject matter and the claimed invention "were, at the time the invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person."
